THE RIO COMES AND GOES ON TIME.

THE PURSER OF THE KINAU SAVES THE LIVES OF OARSMEN.

Gay Parties On Tugs and Ships The Schooner J. M. Weatherwax and Ship Philadelphia Sail.

The harbor was in gala attire yesterday and the front was livelier than it has been these many days. Regatta day is an institution and on that der the water front is sought by thousands of people who probably do not see it on any other day. All the ships in the Puritan Maid; Avondale savors of harbor were decorated with flags and Shakespearean lore; Lady Arabella, bunting and the boat houses were with gallant knights, banners, turreted covered with flags and crowded with castles and dungeons deep; Sunbeam people. Captain Berger and his band in the haunts of poverty, the stragheld forth on the Wilder wharf and gling sunbeam to the lonely prisoner discoursed sweet music until late in in his dungeon is the herald of hope

Most of the Island steamers that were due to arrive today got a hustle on themselves and arrived early yesterday morning; even the Kinau was reminds us of their persecution, exile alongside her wharf by 10:30. Captain and the massacre on St. Bartholomew's Clark had promised his passengers that they would be here in time to see the day's sport, and they were. In dolas and stillettoes; Michael Angelo, fact, they arrived off the harbor just artist, painter, dreamer, who still lives in time to see the finish of the principal event of the day-the swamping of the race boats.

Early in the morning the schooner J. M. Weatherwax sailed out of the harbor in ballast for the Sound. She was started by the pistol as she passed the judges' stand, which was anchored off the Wilder wharf in Naval Row.

About 11 o'clock the Rio put in an appearance and was soon after along side the Pacific Mail wharf. This wharf was crowded by sightseers b2- are keeping the dead past alive .fore the steamer arrived, but when Capt. John F. Janes, in San Francisco she came the people had to seek some other point of vantage. The China steamer had but about a dozen cabin passengers when she arrived, but will leave here with many, as many had booked for the coast before her ar-

away early this morning for San from the Orient. One of her officers says that the Coptic will probably be here on time, as she will leave Shanghai on the trip this way and will leave Yokohama but a day late. She will thus be enabled to make up time bein the east. Soon after the Rio was ing she made a very pretty sight.

Captain Brokaw was the host and he the decks of a modern battleship

Readers will note the romantic names which savor of ancient lore romance, mythology, Neptune and mermaids, poetry, Fennimore Coopers Leather Stocking and Indian Tales. Yesterday Was a Gala The builders and owners of the past were enveloped in a mystical cloud which only those who came in the early days can feet. The modern shipbuilder and owner is like the fresh water crank, Doctor Cogswell of fountain fame, and egotistical, and name their ships after themselves, as John Smith. Wm. Jones. Henry Brown and Sarah Perkins. Put these names against the above and the following: Ocean Bird, White Squall, Grey Feather, Winged Racer, Golden Racer, Gazelle, Storm King, Mermaid, Bald Eagle, Morning Light, Living Age, Seaman's Bride, Flying Eagle, Belle of the West, Empress of the Seas, Sovereign of the Seas, Flying Dutchman, Golden Gate, Golden Fleece. Think of Don Quixote, De Soto, Columbus, Drake, Raleigh, Sinbad the Sailor, Red Jacket, Queen Elizabeth and the many historical characters of the past and the beauty of those ship names. Here is another list of California racers which entered the Golden Gate in those same years. Their names represent the characters of the past: The Revere-think of Paul Revere, patriot; Rose Standish, the sweet New England creeping in through the broken pane that he is not forgotten. St. Patrick carries with it the worship and idol of the Catholic Irish; his experience, persecution and conversion of the pagan Irish to Christianity; Huguenet eve; Atlanta, the lost Atlantas of the ancient navigators; Venice, the dream city of art, love, poetry, music, gonon canvas handed down as his handicraft; Cleopa ra, her loves and romantic death; Sirocco, the balmy and splcy monsoon which sweeps from Arabia's shore across the Mediterranean sea. Again, think what the following names signify to those who love books and history of past ages: Helena, Ariadne, Vandalia, Cynthia, Ino, Cyget, Astrea, Cyane and Rubicon have the odors of mythology; Herculaneum and Parthian resurrect the dead cities of Italy and Greece. Around all these names of ships hover memories not to be forgotten. The naming of these ships City Front News.

Of Interest to the Ladies...

Few women care for the hair as they should. When the hair begins to come out they are alarmed. It would be much better if they give it more attention when it is in a healthy condition. The first requisite in the care of the hair is a GOOD TONIC. Just the kind we keep. Our Hair Tonic will kill dandruff. Stop the hair from falling out. Cure itchness of the scalp. Make the hair soft and glossy. It keeps the hair and scalp in a healthy condition.

Try a bottle and give it a trial.
